Young Theologians & Bishops: Building a Bridge

by Michael Sean Winters

Distinctly Catholic

Over at CatholicMoralTheology.com, Thomas Bushlack writes about last week's meeting of young theologians with bishops on the Doctrine Committee of the USCCB. I attended the first meeting two years ago and it was something of a disaster. The bishops, according to Bushlack, responded to some of the criticisms of that first event and this time it was more successful. I was unable to attend this year, but it is worth reading Bushlack's analysis both for the signs of hope and the on-going areas of concern.
