Global Sisters Report

[1] A new website [1] from National Catholic Reporter

Catholic sisters have made countless contributions to human development.

The National Catholic Reporter is embarking on a groundbreaking project, made possible by a grant from the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation, to give greater voice to these sisters and recognition for the important work they do.

GlobalSistersReport.org [2] tells the stories of women religious around the world. Our global network of journalists report the stories of the sisters, while women religious columnists provide first-person accounts of their own work and mission. The website is a one-stop resource for all things Catholic sisters.
