

Pope Francis arrives to lead his general audience in St. Peter's Square at the Vatican Oct. 22.

SENTENCE ON WOMEN 'INADVERTENTLY DELETED'

In his interview with Pope Francis, America magazine "inadvertently" omitted a sentence from the pope's address about the role of women in the church. The pope said that women should be "informed" about the role of women in the church. Francis said that it is important to ensure that the participation of women in the church is not "inadvertently deleted."

FOR THE FIRST TIME 'NATURAL CENTER'

The Vatican will allow all of these people to be part of the church's life. This is a significant step towards recognizing the role of women in the church. Francis said that the church should be a "natural center" for all people, regardless of their gender.

WORK: TEACHING IS HOW TO LIVE

Francis said that teaching is the way to live. He emphasized the importance of education and learning in the church. He said that the church should be a place where people can learn and grow together.

A 'culture of encounter' Francis wishes to release Vatican II's bold vision from captivity

By RICHARD GALEARDI

In the last 50 years we have had five popes, the first four were of the Latin Rite and the fifth was of the Eastern Rite. Francis is the first pope of the Eastern Rite. He is a man of peace and dialogue. He is a man who wants to build bridges between different cultures and religions.
