

'Band of Sisters' showing in Kansas City and Arizona

Colleen Dunne | Oct. 21, 2013 NCR Today

NCR readers in Scottsdale and Tucson, Ariz., and Kansas City, Mo.: This is your week to see "Band of Sisters," [1] the documentary by Mary Fishman of Chicago that chronicles the stories of several American nuns serving as central agents in the most effective social movements of our time and traces the shaping of community missions in a post-Vatican II church.

The film is in Scottsdale until Oct. 24. at the Harkins Theatres-Shea 14, 7354 E. Shea Blvd.

Kansas Citians can see the film at 7 p.m. Thursday at The Tivoli in Westport, 4050 Pennsylvania Ave.

See the film Saturday in Tucson at The Loft Cinema, 3233 E. Speedway Blvd.

The showings in Kansas City and Scottsdale will be followed by discussion panels. The filmmaker is scheduled to talk in Scottsdale.

For background on the movie, NCR contributor Heidi Schlumpf interviewed filmmakers in her September 2012 article "Documentary on U.S. nuns chronicles transformation to world citizens [2]."

More show dates:

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 27

The Flicks

646 Fulton St.

Loudonville, N.Y., Oct. 29

Siena College

Key Auditorium, Roger Bacon 202

515 Loudon Road

Source URL (retrieved on 06/27/2017 - 09:29): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/band-sisters-showing-kansas-city-and-arizona>

Links:

[1] <http://www.bandofsistersmovie.com/#trailer>

[2] <http://ncronline.org/news/sisters-stories/documentary-us-nuns-chronicles-transformation-world-citizens>