To celebrate the new millenium, the National Catholic Reporter invited people to submit original artwork to answer the question, "What would Jesus Christ look like in the year 2000?" The contest was a huge success: NCR's judges, among them the notable Sr. Wendy Becket, received 1,678 representations of Jesus from 1,004 artists in 19 countries from six continents.

Jesus 2000 is the full-color special supplement to the newspaper which includes the top 60 entries from the contest.

Cost: $3 (includes shipping to U.S. addresses)
