

O Dawning Light

Sisters of the Monastery of Mount St. Scholastica | Dec. 10, 2014 Spiritual Reflections
Advent 2014

O Dawning Light, bring your warmth and clarity to our muddled ways.

Unclutter our divided hearts. Help us get through and beyond the distraction and noise of society's high demands in these weeks of Advent. Free us to focus on your ever-faithful and present loving kindness as we patiently proceed through our days of waiting and hoping. May we learn how to be satisfied with the peace and joy of a heart that yearns for your coming and recognizes that every gift is from your hand.
