

O Prince of Peace

Sisters of the Monastery of Mount St. Scholastica | Dec. 13, 2014 Spiritual Reflections
Advent 2014

O Prince of Peace, give us the alertness and courage to be peacemakers.

This Advent season of peace, consider your attitudes toward war and its effects. Can war ever be justified in this age of new technologies, drones, and civilian deaths beyond number? Are there alternatives to creeping militarism? How can we help our bishops promote the end to war and its costly preparations? Are Jesus' love and compassion irrelevant when it comes to foreign policy? To love our neighbors means more than to not kill them. Can we embrace our enemies in compassion and love?
