

O Rising Sun

Sisters of the Monastery of Mount St. Scholastica | Dec. 22, 2014 Spiritual Reflections
Advent 2014

O Rising Sun, send your healing rays of love into our lives.

I never cease to be amazed at what a night's rest can do for a troubled heart. After a day disrupted by a misunderstanding with a family member, a disagreement with a friend, or bad news at work, all can look new and full of hope in the bright pinks and deep blues of the Advent morning sky. May we open our eyes to the gift of each new day, to look with awe and wonder at the sunrise and allow God's healing to touch our lives and the lives of all we love.
