

Card. George Pushes For Immigration Reform

Michael Sean Winters | Feb. 5, 2014 | Distinctly Catholic

Yesterday, former Speaker of the House Danny Hastert and Cardinal Francis George joined hands with Illinois business leaders to make the case for comprehensive immigration reform. The Chicago Tribune has the story [1]. The business push is especially important as the issue rests in the hands of the House GOP leaders, all of whom are beholden, in varying degrees, to business interests.
