

Another Lie From Arroyo

Michael Sean Winters | Feb. 11, 2014 Distinctly Catholic

[In last week's edition of "The World Over, \[1\]"](#) host Raymond Arroyo repeated the canard that last week's CBO report indicated that the Affordable Care Act would cost 2.5 million jobs over ten years. This is a lie. Is lie too strong a word? No, not least because this falsehood was birthed for a purpose. The CBO report says 2.5 million people will leave the workforce, not that 2.5 million jobs will be lost. I [wrote about the rightwing myth \[2\]](#) the day before Arroyo's show aired. If a pregnant unwed mother can be fired from a Catholic school, why is Arroyo permitted to continue in his job with so many repeated examples of his willingness to violate the commandment "Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness."
