Botched execution: When we will stop the insanity?

by Dennis Coday

NCR Today

The Associate Press story I saw this morning made me sick to my stomach. When will the US follow the rest of the world and end the barbarity?

McALESTER, Okla. (AP) ? An Oklahoma death row inmate writhed, clenched his teeth and appeared to struggle against the restraints holding him to a gurney before prison officials halted an execution in which the state was using a new drug combination for the first time. The man later died of a heart attack.
