

Recommended reading from NCR editor

Dennis Coday | May. 9, 2014 NCR Today

If you read only two articles today, you must read these from Global Sister's Report

You've no doubt been reading reports on the NCR website about the unfolding discussions between the Leadership Conference of Women Religious and Cardinal Gerhard Mueller of the Vatican's doctrinal congregation. If you want more insight into the larger issues behind those discussion, I'd suggest you look at these stories on Global Sister's Report, a project of NCR which was launched just two weeks ago.

I'd further suggest that you bookmark GlobalSistersReport.org and visit it frequently. It will give you the inside scoop on the mission, ministry and lives of women religious around the globe.

African beatitudes and GSR: sisters on the ground in Nairobi [1]

By Jill Day

In Nairobi's traffic-clogged maelstrom, Catholic sisters go quietly about their calling, helping the dying, supporting the destitute, educating the impoverished and healing the sick.

Read More [1]

Jesus and women: 'You are set free' [2]

By Elizabeth Johnson

Luke's story about the woman bent over (Lk 13:10-13) is a powerful scene in the gospels that shows in a flash how life-giving the encounter between Jesus and women can be. As Luke tells the story.

Read More [2]

Source URL (retrieved on 07/26/2017 - 19:35): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/ncr-today/recommended-reading-ncr-editor>

Links:

[1] <http://globalsistersreport.org/news/ministry/african-beatitudes-and-gsr-sisters-ground-nairobi-2191>

[2] <http://globalsistersreport.org/column/speaking-god/spirituality/jesus-and-women-you-are-set-free-1186>