THE GOSPEL OF THE FAMILY

CARDINAL WALTER KASPER

By Cardinal Walter Kasper

Published by Paulist Press, $9.95

When he spoke -- at the request of Pope Francis -- in a two-hour session in front of at least 150 of the world's cardinals in February, Cardinal Walter Kasper's comments about divorce and remarriage caught the room's attention.

Kasper posed two questions: Given that the current judicial process for annulling a marriage often is long and burdensome, can the church develop a more sensitive and efficient process? Given that sometimes even valid, sacramental marriages can become "irreparably broken" and one or both parties enter new, civil marriages and try to live faithfully in a church community, is it right to deny them the sacraments?
