

Donohue Attacks MSW

Michael Sean Winters | Jul. 21, 2014 | Distinctly Catholic

There are few satisfactions in life greater than earning a rebuke from Bill Donohue of the Catholic League [1]. He took issue with my column on Friday calling upon Archbishop Nienstedt to resign. The last thing I want to do is get into a shouting match with Bill Donohue: He has far more practice shouting than I do. But, I take the liberty of sharing with readers how being attacked by Donohue makes me feel.
