

Poverty & the Safety Net

Michael Sean Winters | Aug. 18, 2014 | Distinctly Catholic

Melissa Boteach from the Center of American Progress [1] looks at some key facts about poverty, especially the way people move in and out of poverty, that it is not the same 15% every year who live below the poverty line. The money quote:

Poverty is not a character flaw, nor is it a fixed set of characteristics that describes some malady suffered by others.

Source URL (retrieved on 06/23/2017 - 09:52): <https://www.ncronline.org/blogs/distinctly-catholic/poverty-safety-net>

Links:

[1] <http://www.americanprogress.org/issues/poverty/news/2014/08/11/95373/reimagining-our-social-contract-the-safety-net-is-social-insurance-for-all-americans/>