

Dear Readers.

As I sit before my computer today, my eyes wandering through pages of NCR donor names, I feel humbled thinking of the trust each of you has placed in us.

It's clear to me NCR has grown to be more than simply a news organization; it has also become a community, yes, a community within the church. We seek and prize honest reporting and an open exchange of ideas. We believe this is key to build a better world, a world of seeking justice, mercy and peace.

We want to live up to these bonds and this trust. I recommit today we will do our best to do so. As you, too, look at the names on these pages think of us as a community joined together with deeply share values, hopes and beliefs. Feel a tinge of joy. We need it. We've earned it. We're not going away.

With much gratitude,

Tom Fox
NCR President/CEO

P.S. The names on the following pages include those who donated to NCR during our fiscal year that ended on June 30. Below are those who have included NCR in their estate planning or left a legacy gift to NCR. We are grateful to all.

NCR Legacy Society

The following NCR Legacy Society donors have taken the next step to help ensure NCR will be here for the next generations of readers. To find out more about including NCR in your estate plan, go to NCRonline.planmylegacy.org or call 1-800-444-8910.
